

Agreement For Use of Therapy Sessions for Supervision / Consultation

We _____ (“Client/Couple”) consent to our therapist _____ (“Therapist”) sharing video/audio recordings of our therapy session(s) with Lorrie Brubacher. (“Consultant”). This is in order that our therapist can receive further training from the consultant in the EFT model of Intervention. We understand that the contents of the session(s) and the consultant’s feedback to the therapist will be kept private and confidential by the consultant.

We also agree that the consultant is only responsible for providing training / consultation to the therapist on the use of the EFT model of couple therapy. This training is a service to the therapist. The therapist is then solely responsible for the conduct of our therapy sessions and any outcomes of these sessions. In consideration of the consultant providing the training to the therapist in the EFT model we the client/couple, agree that the consultant Lorrie Brubacher shall not be, in any way, held responsible by us or by any other person associated with us for what occurs in any of our therapy sessions or the outcome of those sessions.
